HAPPY
2007!

Here am I opening one of my Christmas presents.

Mom look what I got! CARROTS! I love to eat carrots...and they're good for my eyes!

Last month, I had a chance to enjoy the extraordinary warm December weather. Mom took me to the beach at the shore of Lake Erie.

What a beautiful sunset! I hope everyone has A good and prosperous new year!

I
wonder what is underneath
here?

I am saying my prayers that everyone has a Happy and Healthy New Year!

Woof! Woof!
